

Fayetteville Public Schools' Hall of Honor Guidelines for Eligibility and Selection

The Hall of Honor proudly acknowledges the diversity of its educators, friends, and alumnae. Through induction, we honor a diverse tapestry of individuals who have played an active role in preserving the legacy and tradition of excellence of our alma mater.

Mission Statement:

The Hall of Honor commemorates educators, alumni, and friends who have demonstrated extraordinary Fidelity, Honor, and Service to the Fayetteville Public Schools and our community.

Objective:

To provide role models for our students, to create excitement about education, and to honor educators, former students, and friends of public education in Fayetteville.

Fayetteville Public Schools and The Fayetteville Public Education Foundation aim to maintain the diversity of our student population, alumni community and educators. We are intentional about community representation within our nomination process.

1. Alumni/Student:

Must have attended or graduated from the Fayetteville School District. The nomination must be made ten (10) years or more from the date of attendance or graduation of the candidate. Must have attended or graduated from the Fayetteville School District. The Hall of Honor award is given to a person who has made outstanding contributions in one or more of the following areas:

- Positive role models for the students of the Fayetteville School District through demonstrating exceptional service in support of the advancement and continued excellence in representing their alma mater.
- Contribute in an exemplary manner to humanitarian efforts, community service, or public service at the local, state, or national level.
- Achieve notable success through leadership, character, and service in their profession.

2. Educator/Employee:

Must have retired or resigned from the Fayetteville School District for three (3) or more years before being considered for nomination. Must have taught, worked, or contributed service to the Fayetteville School District for ten (10) years or more. The Hall of Honor award is given to a person who has made outstanding contributions in one or more of the following areas:

- A positive and outstanding role model, respected by students, staff, and/or parents.
- Inspired and challenged students to succeed and/or fostered high-quality performance from students.
- A person of uncommon dedication, going beyond the call of duty to assist students, staff, and/or parents.
- Added to the field of education or to their community through their service.

3. Fayetteville Public Schools Friend:

The Hall of Honor award is given to a Friend of the Fayetteville Public Schools who have made outstanding contributions in one or more of the following ways:

- An exceptional patron of the Fayetteville Public Schools through contributed time, volunteerism, or resources for the betterment of the school district.
- Demonstrated leadership, character, and service to the community and a positive role model for community members and students of the Fayetteville Public Schools.
- Known for his/her contributions to the betterment of the community, state, or country.

Hall of Honor Inductee nominations may be considered posthumously, this award is given only when outstanding merit or significant achievement are deemed necessary to be recognized.

Each year the FHS Student Council may submit a Student Choice Award, this award is given only when outstanding merit or significant achievement are deemed necessary to be recognized.

Nominations of individuals who are not selected to the Hall of Honor will remain for consideration as potential nominees for five (5) years after the original date of nomination.

The Fayetteville Public Schools' Hall of Honor is sponsored by the Fayetteville Public Education Foundation in collaboration with the Fayetteville High School Student Council.